DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: reference numeral "2" in line 10 should read --4-- in both occurrences.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Smallegan (US Patent 4,348,796).

With regards to claim 1, Smallegan discloses a feed head 20 having a delivery path 72 along which nuts 60 are fed to a pressing station in the feed head, the pressing station having a pressing die 102 which is reciprocated transversely to the delivery path under the action of a press to fasten a nut to a sheet metal member 114, wherein means is provided to reciprocate the pressing die manually, see column 7, lines 9-11 and figure 1.

Art Unit: 3726

For claims 2 and 3, Official Notice is taken in that cam reciprocated dies are old and well known to those of ordinary skill in the art.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 4-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Smallegan in view of Goodsmith et al. (US Patent 4,998,659).

Smallegan discloses a feed head 20 having a delivery path 72 along which nuts are fed to a pressing station in the feed head, in which a sensor and a switch mechanism which stops the press if the nut is not properly aligned are provided, see column 2, lines 39-42. Although Smallegan does not disclose a sensor at the end of the delivery path or up stream of the feed head, such placed sensors are known as attested by Goodsmith et al., see column 1, lines 46-58. Therefore it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made, to have incorporated sensors at the end of the delivery path or up stream of the feed head of Smallegan, in light of the teachings of Goodsmith et al., in order to ensure that the die press is not actuated if a nut is not located ready for installation.
